

The bill for an emission of bills of credit, and the bill to make valid two deeds of conveyance from William Hicks to Vernon Hebb and James Adderton, were sent to the senate by Mr. John Seney.

ORDERED, That Mr. Goldsborough and Mr. Cramphin be added to the committee to inspect into the books, papers and accounts, of the intendant of the revenue, and that they make their report by Wednesday next.

The order of the day, respecting the bill to appoint an intendant of the revenue, is postponed until Wednesday next. ORDERED that the intendant of the revenue be directed to attend the house on that day.

Mr. Dent has leave of absence.

The house took into consideration the order of the day, and on the second reading the bill to prevent the exportation of unmerchantable tobacco, the question was put, That the following clause be struck out? "And be it enacted, That the commissioners of the tax for the several counties of this state, or the major part of them, be authorized and required to meet at the place where their respective county courts are held, between the first and fifth day of March next (and annually thereafter at the same time and place during the continuance of this act) and then and there determine at what place or places in their respective counties public warehouses shall be kept for the receipt and inspection of tobacco agreeably to this act, and the number of inspectors proper at each place; and they shall enter the place and the number of inspectors at each place in a book to be provided and kept for that purpose only; and the place or places, and warehouse or warehouses, appointed by the said commissioners, shall be the place or places, and warehouse or warehouses for the receipt and inspection of tobacco in their county during the continuance of this act." The yeas and nays being called for by Mr. B. Worthington appeared as follow:
